ORGANIZATIONAL SESSION UPDATE

January 12, 2023

The Alabama Legislature convened for the 2023 Organizational Session this week. The purpose of the session was to elect leadership and adopt procedural rules for each chamber. The members also had mandatory ethics training.

The Senate unanimously reelected Senator Greg Reed (R—Jasper) as the President Pro Tempore. Senator Clay Scofield (R—Guntersville) will serve as Senate Majority Leader and Senator Bobby Singleton (D—Greensboro) will serve as Senate Minority Leader.

The House unanimously elected Representative Nathaniel Ledbetter (R—Rainsville) as the new Speaker of the House. Representative Chris Pringle (R—Mobile) was elected House President Pro Tempore. Representative Scott Stadthagen (R—Hartselle) will serve as House Majority Leader and Representative Anthony Daniels (D—Huntsville) will serve as House Minority Leader.

Tomorrow we will send a list of House and Senate standing committee assignments once all are announced.
